

HOMESWAP

HOME SWAP

FINAL PROJECT

Home Swap

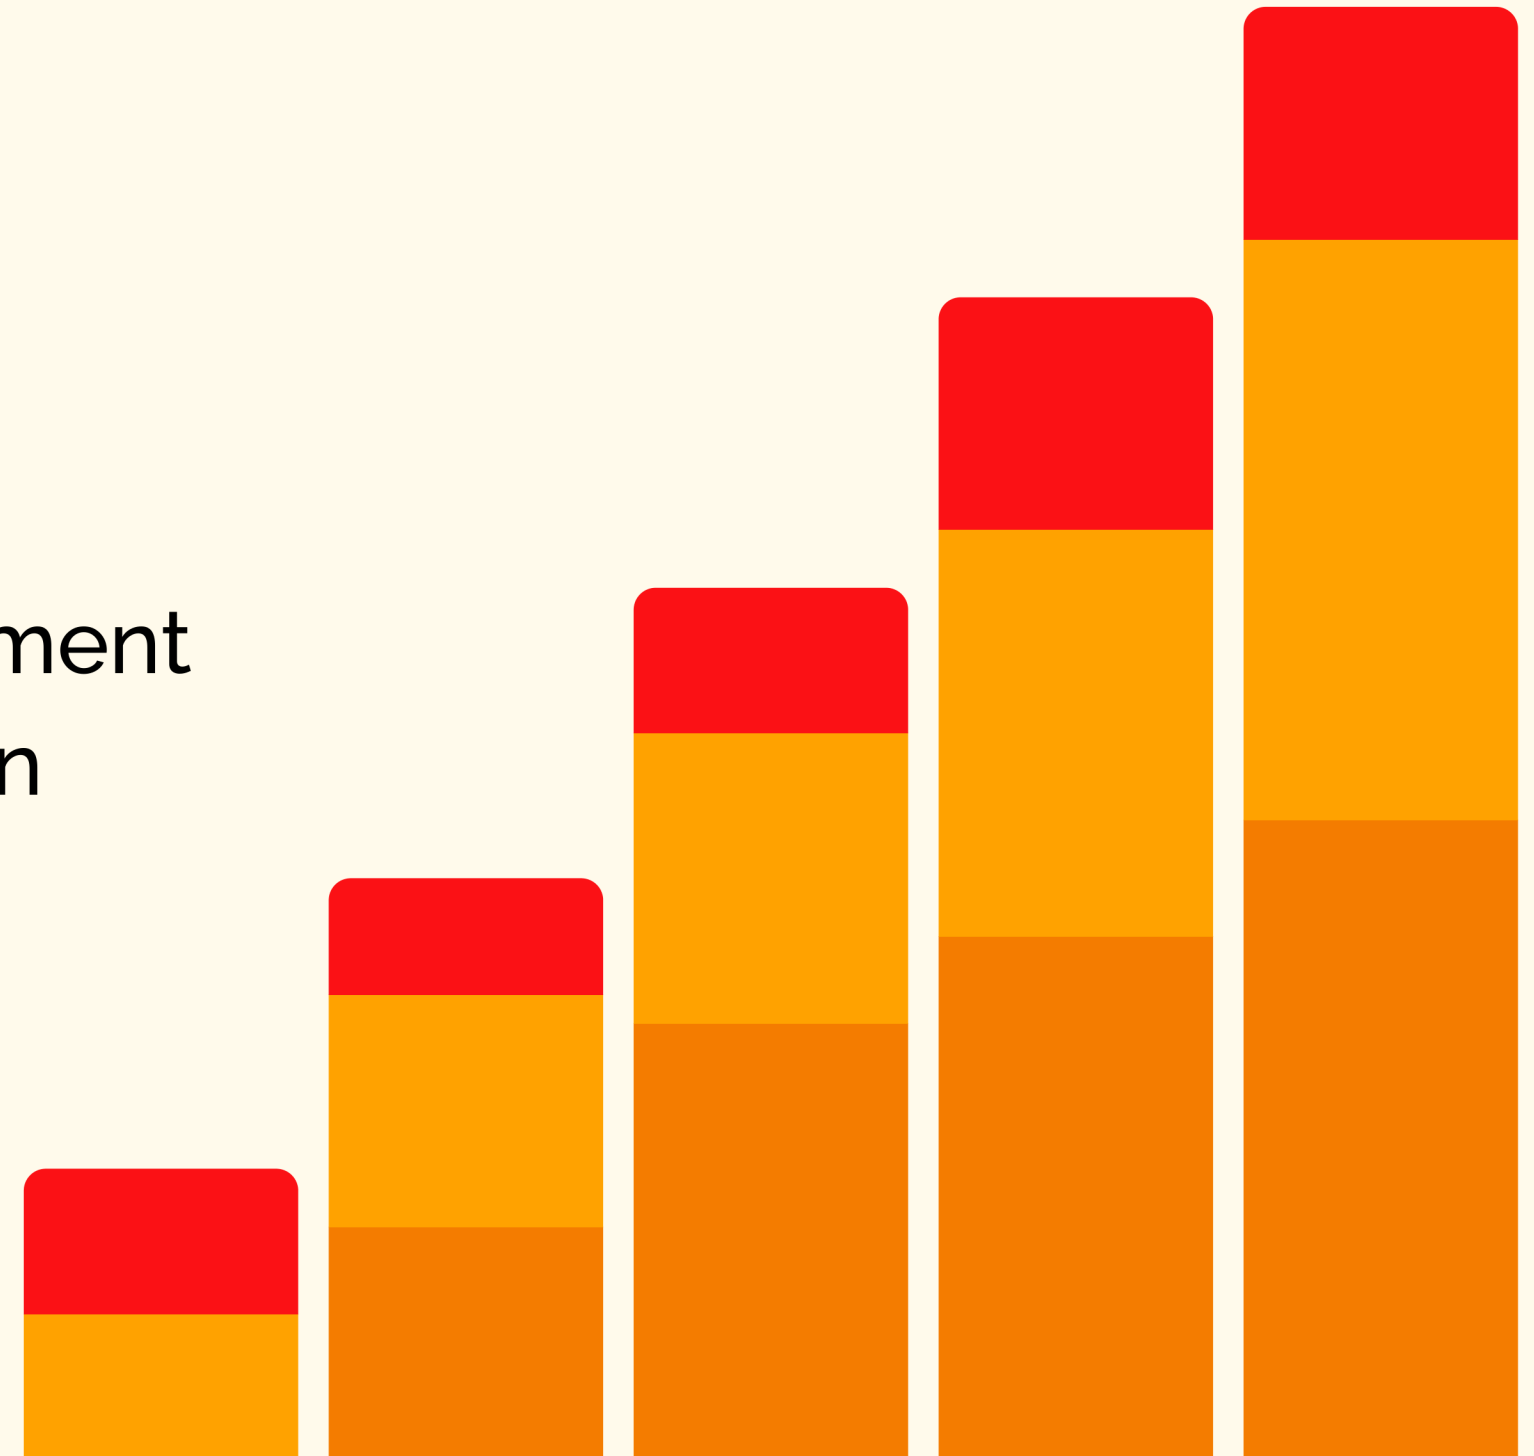

is a platform where people list their homes and swap living spaces with others for more local and cost-effective experience.

Done by

- Ruba AlBalawi
- Munirah AlZuman
- Raniya Ayoub
- Raseel AlShehri

User Story

As a Marketing Manager, I want to analyze customer behavior to identify customer segment based on demographics to improve return on investment (ROI).

Purpose of the analysis

This data analysis project explores trends and preferences in home exchanges, aiming to identify popular destinations, seasonal impacts, and common features of listed homes

- 1 Seasonal Impact
- 2 Country Influence
- 3 Home Type And Country relationship:
 - Do certain nationalities prefer specific types of homes?
 - What types of homes are most common in each country?
- 4 Churn

To the DASHBOARD!!

HOME SWAP - General Analysis

Conversations

11.96M

Successful Swaps

2.69%

In Progress Swaps

96.65%

Cancelled Swaps

0.66%

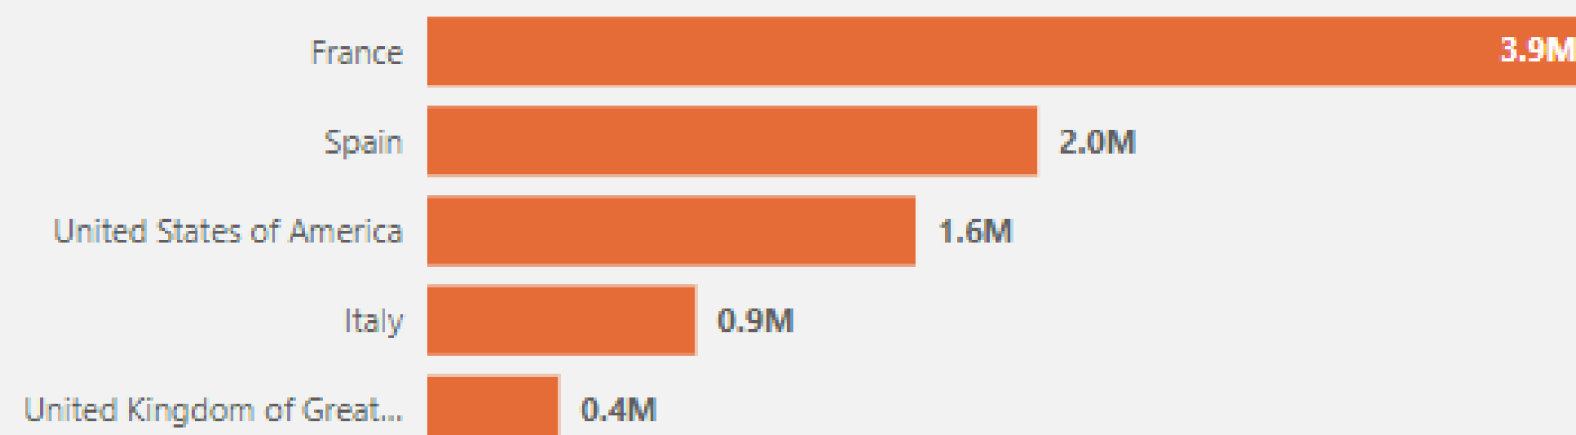

Available Countries

191

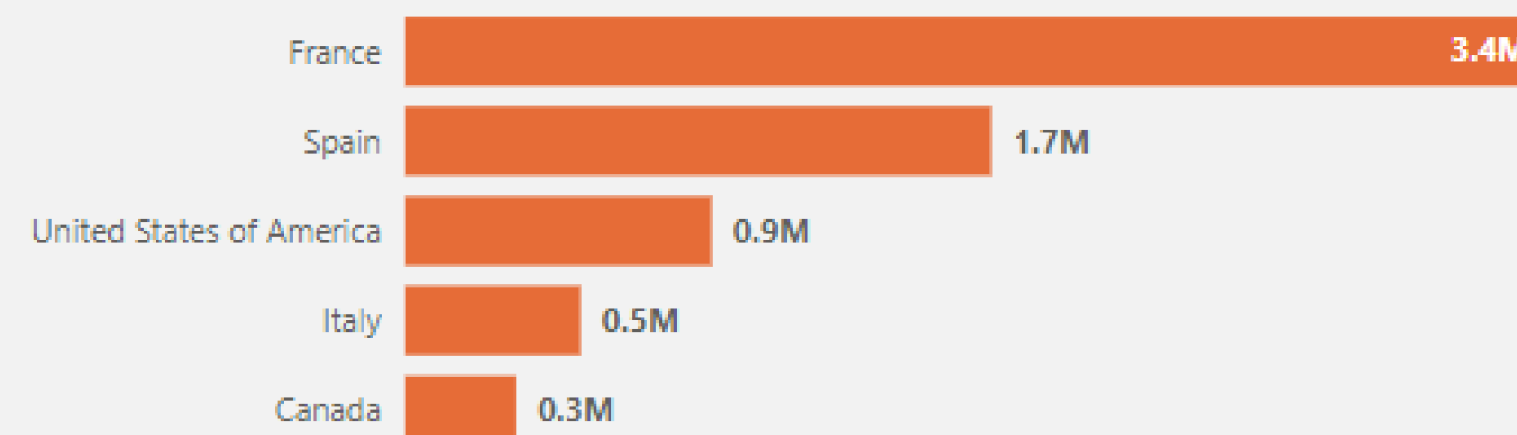

Renews

64K

Exchanges per Home Location

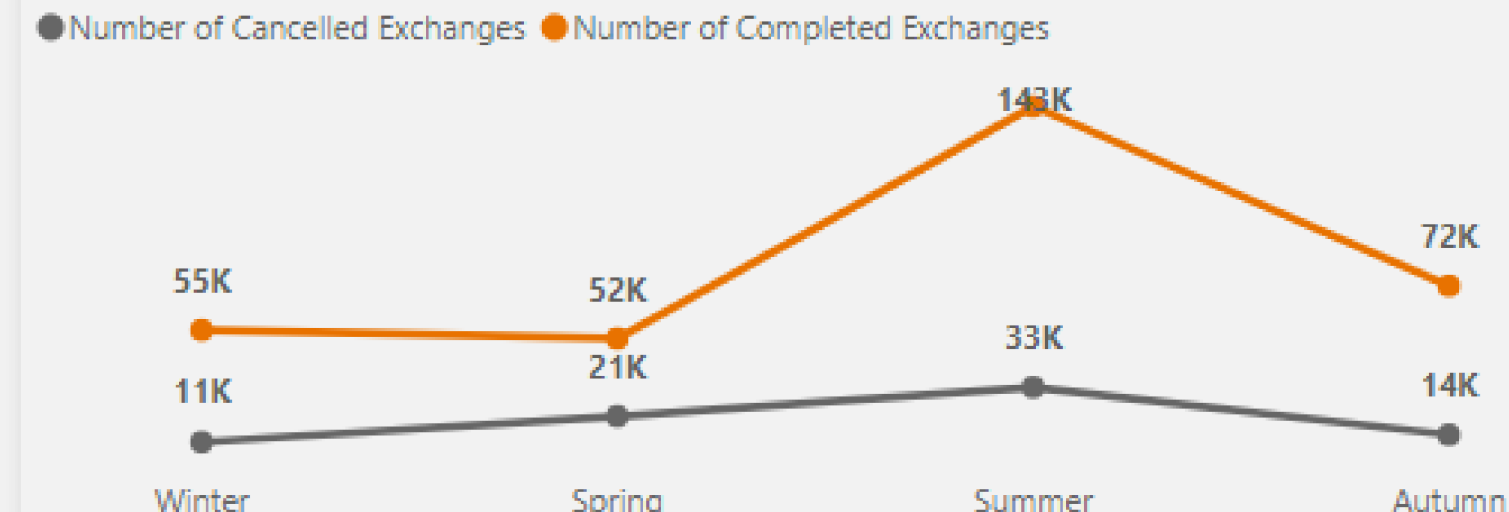

Exchanges per Nationality

Exchanges Attempts Overtime

Total Cancelled and Completed per Season

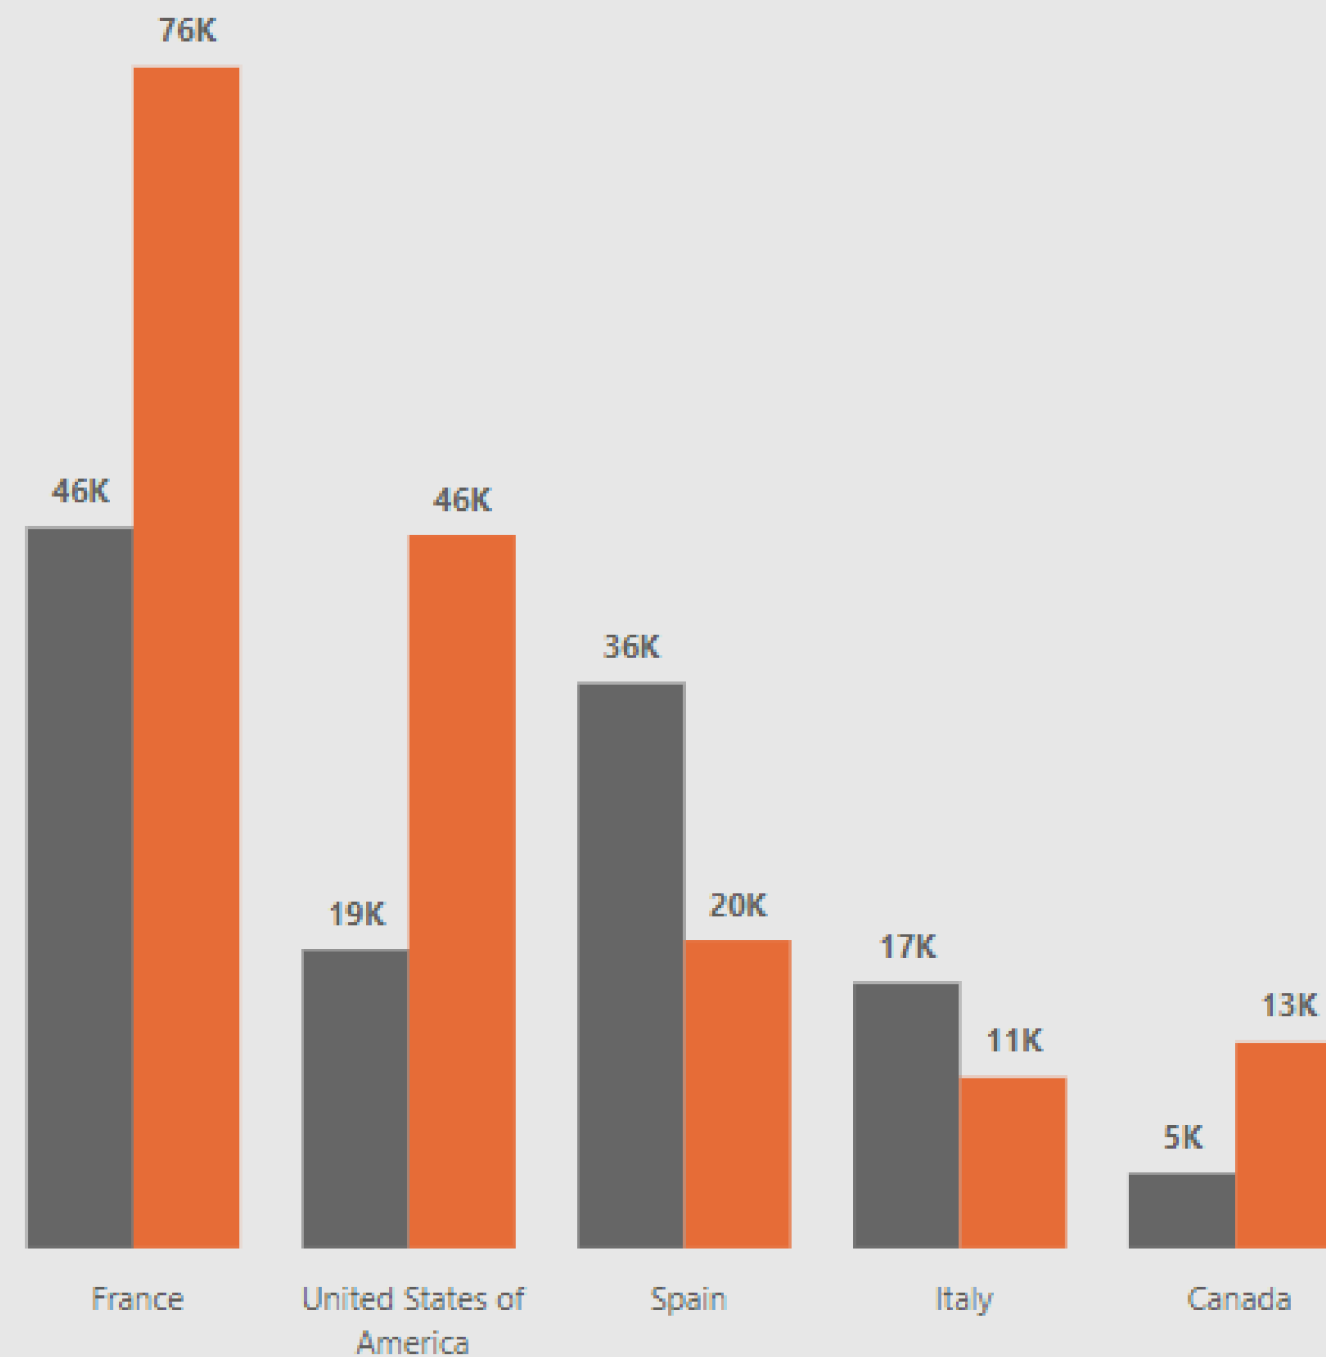

HOME SWAP - Country and Preferences Analysis

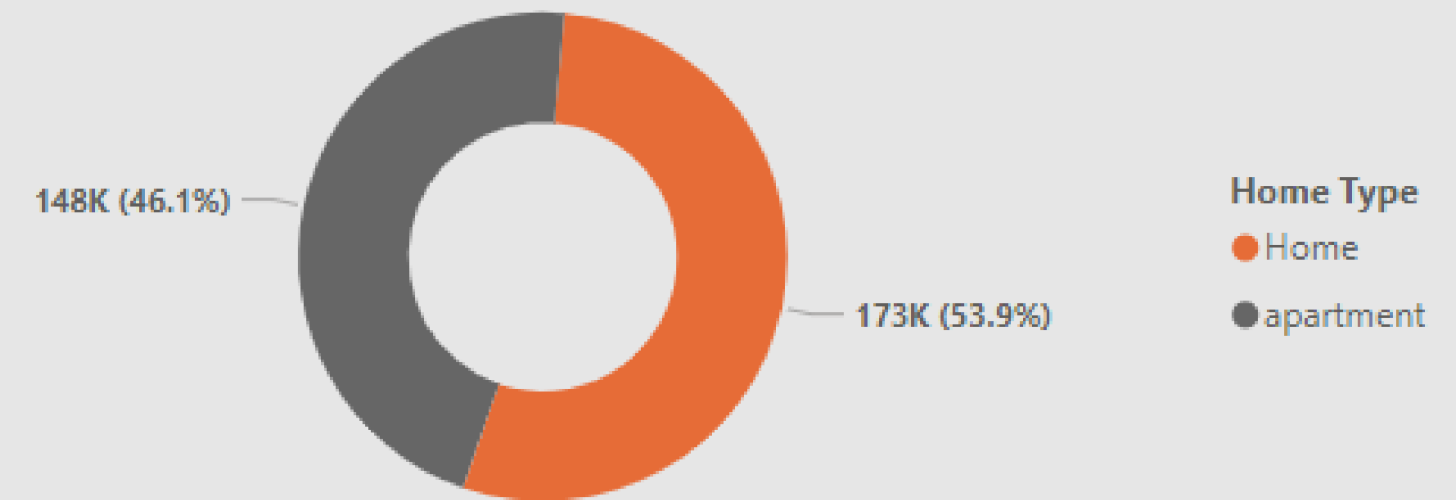

Home Types per Country

Home Type ● apartment ● Home

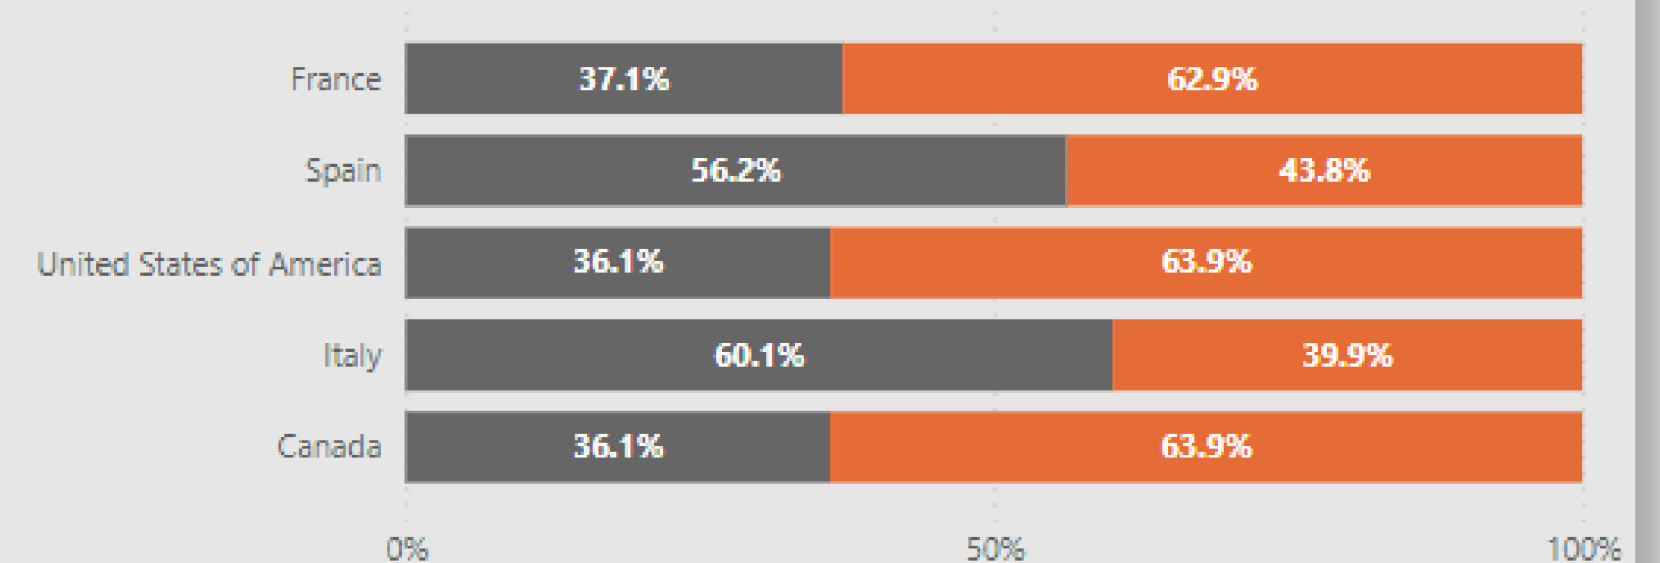

Succeeded Exchanges per Home Type

Nationalities Preferences

Home Type ● apartment ● Home

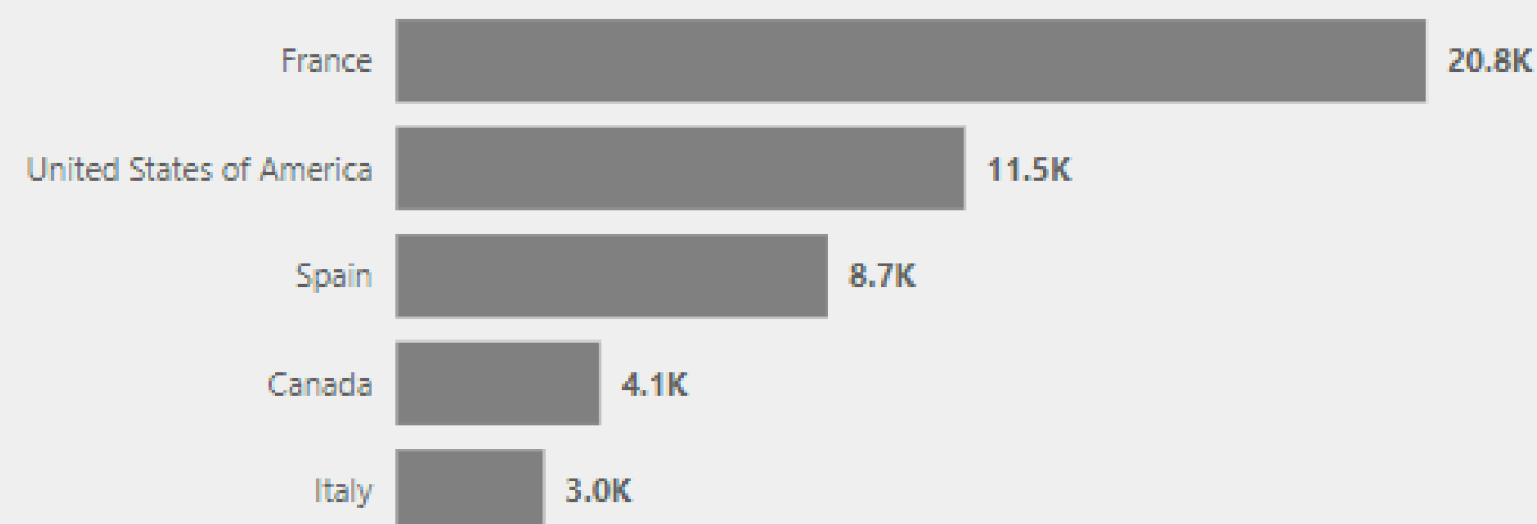

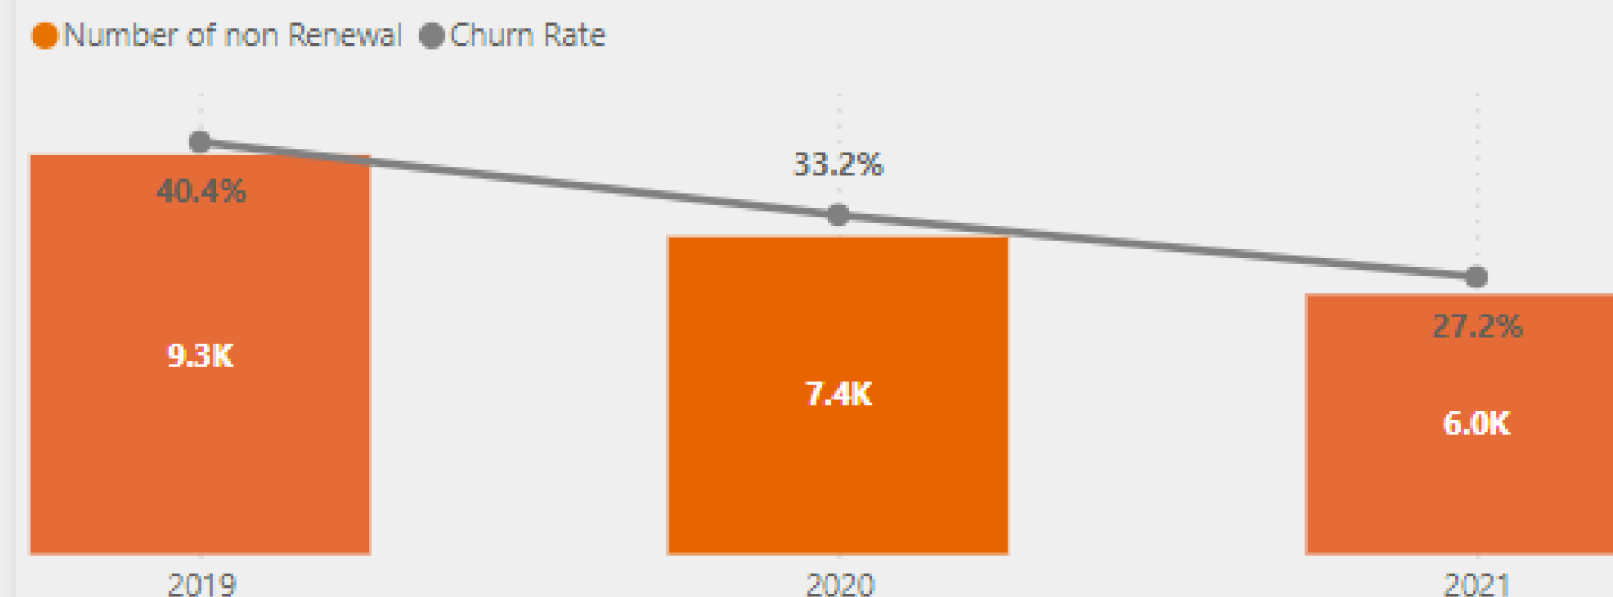

HOME SWAP - Churn Analysis

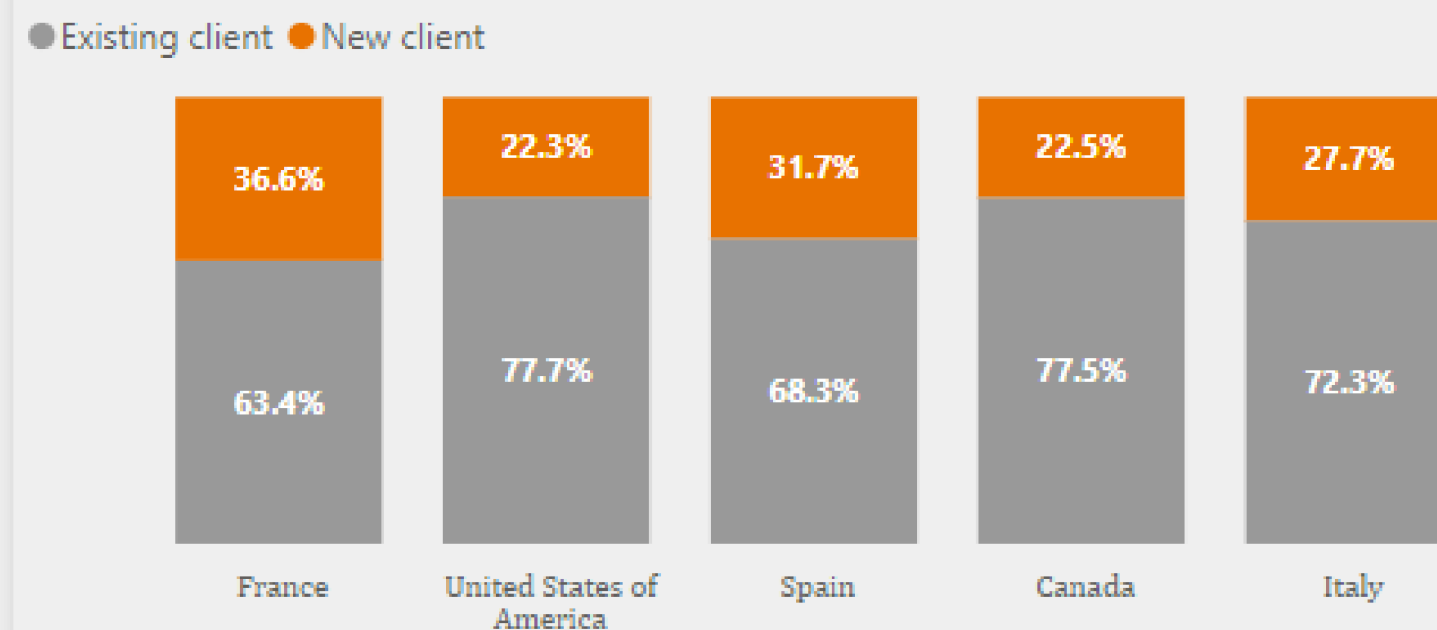

User Churn

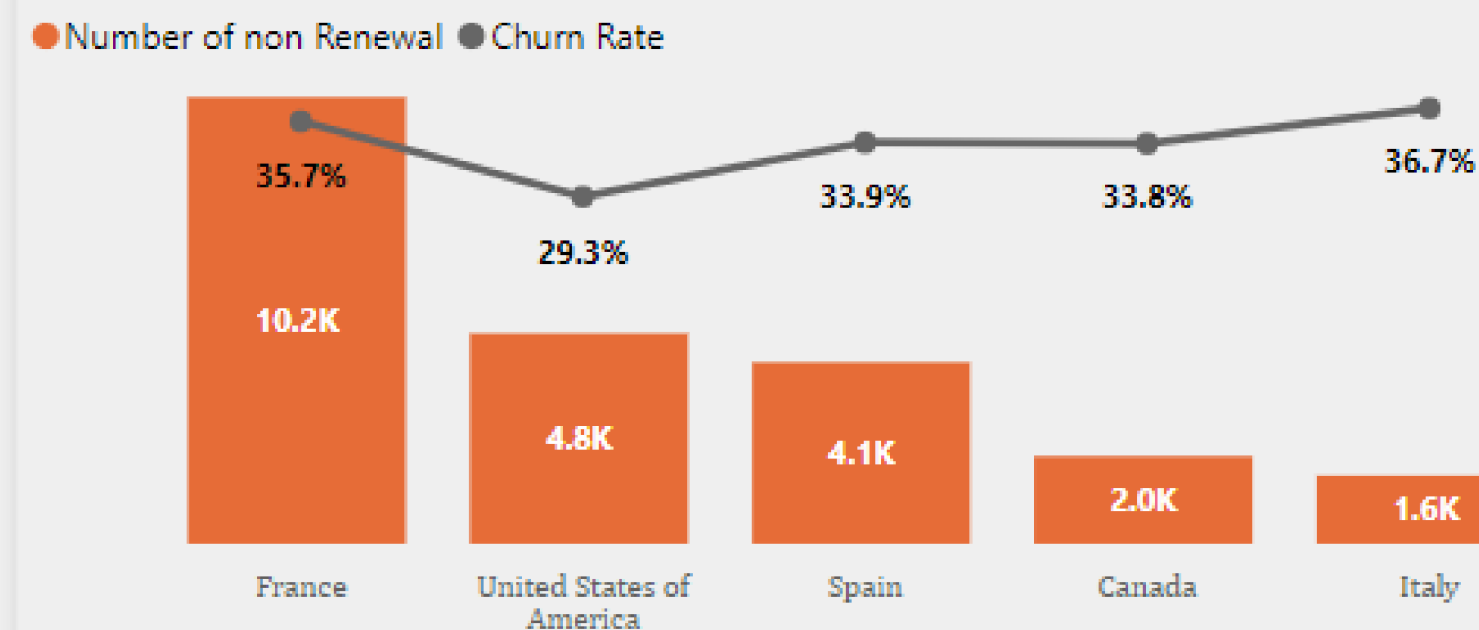

Renewal Status per Year

Clients per Country

Renewal Status per Country

The background features several abstract organic shapes in shades of orange and yellow. A large, light orange shape is on the left, and a larger, darker orange shape is on the right. There are also smaller circles and dots scattered around.

Action Steps

Action steps

- 1 Personalized Follow-ups
- 2 Feedback Systems
- 3 Tailored Marketing Strategies
- 4 Partnerships
- 5 Special Offers

Thank you very much!